

In accordance with the Rhode Island General Laws, the Superintendent shall ensure that all children in grades kindergarten through six are provided with school bus safety instruction at least four times during the school year, and that at least two of those times occur during the months of September and October.

Reference

RI Gen. Laws §16-21-17

History: Reviewed 7/2017