Extra Help For Students

Within budgetary constraints, the Superintendent shall develop and maintain academic support programs that will provide remedial work, academic coaching and other academic support services both during and after normal school hours that will assist students who are having academic difficulty. These academic support programs shall be in addition to those programs that may be required for students who qualify for special education services in accordance with the policy on Special Education. Such programs may include the use of volunteer tutors. Parents shall normally be notified before their child receives extra help.
