

Policies

Newport Public Schools

No. 1577

Article V – Orientation and Development –

Expenses

Page 1 of 1

Upon majority vote, members shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred for the attendance at conferences and conventions sponsored by education associations, state school boards, colleges and universities, or state and national education commissions. Absent extraordinary circumstances, no reimbursements for expenses shall be approved unless approval for attendance at the conference, convention, or similar event has been voted on in advance by a majority of the Committee.

History: BHD, 1978